

THE JOSEPH AND JESUS CONNECTION

60 ways Joseph Prefigures Jesus

In this connection, it is helpful to consider the life of Joseph as the archetypal pattern for the "other son" (ben acher) who would be the fulfillment of Mashiach ben Yosef. The following list is not exhaustive, but here are 60 ways in which the life of Joseph pictures the life of Yeshua our Redeemer:

Joseph - יוסף

Jesus - ישוע

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | Joseph's mother Rachel was barren, and her pregnancy was the result of the direct intervention of God (Gen. 30:2). | Yeshua's mother Mary (Miriam) was a virgin and her pregnancy was the result of the direct intervention of God (Matt. 1:18). |
| 2 | The birth of Rachel's son would remove reproach from Israel (Gen. 30:23). | The birth of Yeshua was for the glory of the people of Israel (Luke 2:32). Yeshua would also be the Light to the nations... |
| 3 | The name Joseph (i.e., yosef : יוסף) means "may he add," a wordplay given by Rachel to express her hope for more children (Gen. 30:24). | Jesus (Yeshua) means "YHVH saves" and denotes the deliverance of God's children. Through Yeshua God would add children to Israel... |
| 4 | Joseph was the firstborn son of Rachel, who is considered "the" matriarch of Israel (Gen. 30:23-24). | Yeshua was the firstborn son of Mary (Miriam), who is considered the matriarch of the church (Luke 2:7; John 19:26). |
| 5 | The birth of Joseph marked the end of Israel's exile from the land; after his birth his father Jacob left Laban for the Promised Land (Gen. 30:25). | The birth of Yeshua marked the end of Israel's spiritual exile (Luke 2:29-32). |
| 6 | In Jewish tradition, Joseph is regarded as the nemesis of Esau (who was considered the personification of | Yeshua overcame the powers of darkness by through the victory of the cross. He is the |

	Gentile power and oppression of Israel).	"Serpent Slayer," the ultimate nemesis of Satan and his servants...
7	Joseph was a precocious young man who was filled with dreams given to him from heaven (Gen. 37:5-ff).	Yeshua was at the Temple discussing Torah with the sages when he was just 12 years old (Luke 2:42-51). He was a precocious child who was filled with dreams of heaven.
8	Joseph was "beloved of his father" (Gen. 37:3). He was ben yachid (בן יחיד) as Isaac was regarded by Abraham (see the Akedah).	"This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased" (Matt. 3:17; 17:5). Yeshua is also described as ben yachid , "only begotten" of the Father (John 1:14).
9	Joseph was a shepherd (רועה) (Gen. 37:2).	Yeshua the Messiah is called the "Good Shepherd" (הרעה הטוב) (John 10:11).
10	Joseph was raised in the Promised Land (Gen. 37:2).	Yeshua was raised in the Promised Land (Matt. 2:23; 21:11; John 1:45).
11	Joseph brought a bad report of his brothers to his father (Gen. 37:2).	Yeshua testified that the world hated Him because its works were evil (John 7:7).
12	Jacob loved Joseph more than his other sons (Gen. 37:3).	God loves Yeshua His Son in a unique way (John 3:35; 5:20; Matt. 17:5; Luke 9:35).
13	Joseph was "anointed" by his father with a tunic of many colors (i.e., ketonet passim : כתנת פסים). (Gen. 37:3)	Yeshua was anointed as Mashiach ben David (Heb 1:9; Psalm 45:7; see below).
14	Joseph prophetically foresaw himself as the deliverer of Israel and the savior of the world (Gen. 37:5-11).	Yeshua understood Himself to be the Savior of Israel and the world (John 6:35; 8:12).
15	Joseph's brothers hated him and could not speak kindly to him (Gen. 37:4).	Yeshua was hated without a cause and repeatedly "tested" by the religious authorities (John 1:11; 15:25).
16	Joseph was a dreamer and a prophet who was despised by his brothers (Gen. 37:5-10).	Yeshua preached the message of salvation through His vision of the kingdom - and was despised (John 5:18; 7:1; 8:6; Matt. 16:1, etc.).
17	Joseph's brothers refused his rule (Gen. 37:8).	Yeshua likened His rejection by the religious leaders to mean, "We do not want this man to rule over us" (Luke 19:14).
18	Joseph's brothers envied him (Gen. 37:11).	It was out of envy (קנאה) that the chief priests handed him over to be killed (Mark 15:10).

19	Joseph was "sent forth by his father" (Gen. 37:12-14).	Yeshua sent forth by His Father (John 5:30-36; 6:57; 8:18,42; Gal. 4:4; 1 John 4:9, etc.).
20	Joseph's brothers conspired to kill him (Gen. 37:18).	The chief priests and the elders of the people conferred together against Yeshua in order to bring about his death (Matt. 27:1).
21	Joseph's brothers disbelieved in him (Gen. 37:19-20).	Yeshua's brothers did not believe in Him (John 1:11; 3:18, John 3:36, etc.).
22	Joseph's brothers stripped him of his tunic and mocked him (Gen. 37:19,23).	They stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him (Matt. 27:28).
23	Joseph's brothers cast him into a pit, a symbol of the tomb (Gen. 37:24).	Yeshua was cast into a pit (Zech. 9:11; Matt. 12:40; Matt. 27:59-60).
24	Joseph's brothers callously ate a meal while he was suffering in the pit (Gen. 37:25).	Israel ate the Pascal meal while Yeshua was in the pit (John 13:1).
25	Judah promoted the idea that Joseph's life should be ransomed (Gen. 37:26-27).	Yeshua was born of the tribe of Judah and became the Redeemer of the world.
26	Joseph's brothers sold him for shekels of silver (Gen. 37:28).	"They paid him (Judas) thirty pieces of silver" (Matt. 26:15).
27	Joseph was raised from the pit (Gen. 37:28).	Yeshua was raised from the dead (Matt. 28:6; Mark 16:16; Luke 24:6; John 20:1-17; etc.).
28	Joseph was sold as a slave before he was promoted to glory (Gen. 37:28).	Yeshua took upon Himself the form of a suffering servant before His exaltation (John 13:12-17; Matt. 20:25-26; Mark 10:43; Phil. 2:6-9, etc.).
29	Joseph was taken into Egypt to avoid being killed (Gen. 37:28).	Yeshua was taken into Egypt to avoid the insane wrath of "Herod the Great" (Matt. 2:13-14).
30	Joseph's tunic was covered with blood (Gen. 37:31)	Yeshua's robe was covered with blood. (Mark 15:17-20; Matt. 27:28-31). Yeshua redeemed us from judgment by shedding His blood for our sins (1 Cor. 6:19-20; Acts 5:31; 1 Pet. 3:18; Rom. 5:6-8, 2 Cor. 5:21; Gal. 3:13, etc.).
